RE: Employment as Entertainer

Dear Kenneth.

This Letter of Intent shall memorialize the terms of your anticipated employment with Royal Caribbean Cruises LTD. d/b/a Royal Caribbean International (RCI) onboard the vessel RADIANCE OF THE SEAS in the capacity of Featured Singer, and commencing as of 8/24/2018.

1. Employment.

You shall be hired to perform aboard the RCI vessel RADIANCE OF THE SEAS (the "Vessel"), beginning on 8/24/2018, ("Commencement Date") and with an expected ending on 5/17/2019, ("End Date"). RCI may seek to extend the duration of your employment (and, accordingly, change the End Date), by no more than eight weeks, provided that you are notified of such intent six weeks before the originally expected ending date of your employment. If extended, you will receive prorated compensation for the actual time served (calculated based on your daily rate of pay).

2. Required Activities.

Your duties and responsibilities and any applicable rehearsal periods pertaining to your employment shall be fully specified in Exhibit A

3. Compensation.

Once onboard you shall be paid, as full compensation for your services, the total sum of $5,000.00 in United States Dollars per month, (less federal taxif a U.S. citizen and less social program compensation if Filipino citizen).

- a) Sick Pay. Sick wages will be provided at 80% of total wages while sick or injured after declared unfit for duty during the training period or after medical sign off from the Vessel. Such wages will be paid up to 130 days after a doctor has declared you to be unfit for duty or after medical sign off. Sick pay coverage ends after 130 days or once you are declared fit for duty or maximum medical cure whichever occurs first.
- b) Medical Insurance. Seaman's Insurance (Maintenance and Cure) is provided once you sign on board the vessel, and shall remain in effect while you are signed on to the Vessel. You will have worker's compensation coverage while training in the shoreside facility.
- c) Contract Completion. As applicable, upon completion of the service period and so long as you fully comply with the terms of your employment, you shall receive a contract completion payment of $4.608.49 in United States Dollars, (less federal tax if a U.S. citizen), to be paid on board at sign-off from the Vessel. If the duration of your employment is extended by RCI in accordance with paragraph 1, the contract completion payment shall be earned and payable to you up to the new End Date. If the duration of your employment is shortened by RCI in accordance with paragraph 1, the contract completion payment shall be pro-rated to reflect the new End Date. If you sign off the Vessel for medical or compassionate leave, the contract completion payment will be pro-rated for time worked on board.
- d) Dry-Dock. In the event that a dry dock occurs during the term of your contract:
 - You can stay on board the Vessel if approved by the Shipboard Executive Committee salary compensation will be received if remaining onboard (Dry dock responsibilities, such as fire watch and other duties, may apply)
 - If Shipboard Executive Committee states you cannot stay on board the Vessel, RCI will supply you with a round trip ticket back to your home gateway of record salary compensation will not be received for any dates you are not onboard
 - If you are allowed to stay on board the Vessel, and still wish to go home, you will need to supply your own round trip ticket—salary compensation will not be received for any dates you are not onboard

4. Termination Policy.

- a. Once you have arrived onboard and entered into a Sign On Employment Agreement, RCI may terminate your employment without cause provided thirty (30) days notice is given or monthly total guarantee pay is provided through the end of the employment contract up to a maximum of thirty (30) days in lieu of notice.
- b. RCI may also cancel your employment at any time with one week's notice or one weeks pay in lieu of such notice if any one or more of the following events occur:
 - 1. RCI receives a significant number of passenger complaints relative to your performance;
 - 2. Your performance does not meet accepted standards as determined by RCl's on board management (in RCl's sole discretion); or
 - 3. You otherwise fail to comply with any of your obligations.
 - 4. You do not maintain physical appearance standards (as applicable) specified by RCI's casting department during hiring process
- c. RCI may cancel your employment immediately if you fail to comply with any of RCI's shipboard rules or regulations.

5. Transportation.

In accordance with its company travel & airline policies, RCI will provide all necessary air transportation as required during the term of your employment (including any air travel required to join or depart the Vessel, for scheduled engagements on additional Vessels, rehearsals and/or for any other required RCI related purposes). You understand, consent and agree that when proceeding from some points of departure, it will be necessary to arrange for air travel the night before the Commencement Date in order to allow you to board the Vessel on time. RCI shall have no obligation to provide return air transportation if your employment is canceled by RCI as a result of your failure to comply with any of the terms and conditions of your employment or if you do not complete the full term of your employment.

6. Accommodations.

On board the vessel, you will receive complimentary living accommodations consisting of one Single Outside occupancy cabin. Meals shall be provided to you on a complimentary basis; this does not apply to specialty restaurants where you will be charged at a passenger rate. All tips to waiters, bus boys, room stewards, and any other personnel, are your responsibility to be paid at the staff rate.

Medical Examination.

Your employment is expressly conditioned upon your taking and passing a medical examination prior to travelling to rehearsals and/or ship assignment. You will be responsible for payment directly to the medical facility for services rendered as well as any necessary subsequent transportation expenses or additional exams required to pass your medical. Please see the "Welcome Aboard" under "Medical" for a more complete explanation of the required medical examinations.

8. Rules and Regulations.

While on board any of the Vessels, You shall enter into a Sign On Employment Agreement and be subject to, and shall govern yourself in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Vessel and its Captain. Failure to comply with shipboard rules and regulations shall be grounds for immediate dismissal.

Passport and Visas.

Sincerely,

You must arrive at Port of Embarkation with an up-to-date passport valid beyond the end of the term of your employment and any Visa(s) as may be required. It is your sole responsibility to acquire all Visas and other travel documentation required for travel in a timely manner.

As with all shipboard employees at RCI, your formal contract shall commence once you have executed a Sign On Employment Agreement onboard your designated vessel. This letter stipulates the particular roles and responsibilities which shall be entailed with your onboard employment. In the event that the terms of this letter conflict with your Sign On Employment Agreement, the terms of the Sign On Employment Agreement shall prevail.

Please indicate your acceptance of the terms of this Letter of Intent below.

Kenneth William Lear

55 Nagle Ave, 2F

New York, NY 10040

Dear Kenneth,

Enclosed please find our contract for your employment with ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISES, LTD. as an Entertainer on board our vessel, the RADIANCE OF THE SEAS beginning 8/24/2018 through 5/17/2019.

You are required to complete and upload your contract package[1] and forms to the Studio Management System prior to your arrival for rehearsals.

PRODUCTIONS: You will be learning the following productions [2], Tango Buenos Aires, Piano Man (RD), City of Dreams. Rehearsal period will begin 7/7/2018 through 8/23/2018.

REHEARSALS/SCHEDULE: Rehearsals will begin on 7/7/2018, and will be held at the Royal Caribbean Productions Studios, unless otherwise notified. Rehearsals are 6 days a week. Your schedule will be determined during the rehearsal period. Please be sure to bring your signed contract, passport, taxi receipts and any other signed documents or forms with you on your first day of rehearsal. Your first day will include an orientation followed by a rehearsal so please come prepared. Please note: some rehearsals/training may need to be continued on board. Your contracted rehearsal/training salary will be in place during this process. Please check Exhibit A "On board rehearsal/training" to see if this applies to you.

REHEARSAL NEEDS: RCCL will provide all costumes and shoes needed for your shows; however, you should bring proper dance shoes/ heels, jazz sneakers, or dance sneakers (not street shoes) for rehearsals. Proper dance attire and undergarments are required and must be worn during all rehearsals. Please refer to the Production Item Requirement Form for specifics. You are expected to maintain your physical appearance, specified by RCCL's casting department, through-out the duration of your contract. This may be monitored by weekly weigh-ins during the rehearsal process. Each performer will be required to bring their own make-up and females are to supply eyelashes and at least two (2) black and two (2) beige bras with adjustable/removable straps. A performance run-through of your shows will be presented at the end of your rehearsal process. For this run-through it is your responsibility to provide and wear your own solid black attire. It is also your responsibility to provide and wear your own solid black semi-formal attire for the final farewell number in the Farewell Show. Singers are required to have a recording device as well as a CD or MP3 player (such as an iPod) for the rehearsal period. Dancers are requested to have a CD or MP3 player (such as an iPod). If you bring an MP3 player, be sure to have the capability to download music from a CD to your MP3 player. While in rehearsals, a locker will be provided to you at the studio. Please bring a combination lock or key padlock to use while you're here.

Singers participating in the Captain's Cocktail Set, Summer Breeze Set, Broadway Set, and Jazz Sets will be required to supply their own attire for these sets. Please refer to the dress attire guidelines required for each set listed below.

SET	DRESS ATTIRE	FEMALES	MALES
SEI	DRESS ATTIKE	THIRD	IVE KLIES

Captain's Cocktail	Formal Attire	Evening Gown or Cocktail Dress	Black or Dark Tuxedo (White Dinner Jacket acceptable)
Summer Breeze Set	Smart Caribbean Casual	Sundress or Dark Skirt w/ Caribbean Style Blouse	Khaki or Dark Pants & Caribbean Style Dress Shirt
Broadway Set/ Jazz Set	Semi-Formal Attire	Cocktail Dress or Pant Suit	Dark Suit

REHEARSAL PER DIEM (LIVING & TRAVEL ALLOWANCE): You will receive a living allowance of $600.00 in United States Dollars per week (calculated at a 7 day work week) as an expense reimbursement for food during your attendance at rehearsal. A travel allowance of $7.00 per week (calculated at a 6 day work week) will be provided for transportation costs during rehearsal period. Please bring enough money to tide you over for at least the first 2 weeks. It could take up to that amount of time to receive your first pay.

If you are not a U.S. citizen you will not receive any per diem money until you sign on board the Vessel and by your 2nd payment. You will need to bring enough money to last the entire length of the rehearsal process.

REHEARSAL EMERGENCIES: It is required that you obtain a major credit card prior to arriving for rehearsals in case of any unexpected emergencies that may arise during your rehearsal period.

OFF-SITE EVENTS: You may be required to perform special events during your rehearsal period. You may be compensated for events off studio property. You will be notified of events prior to start date of rehearsals or during actual rehearsal period if any events should occur during the contracted rehearsal period.

VI

MAIL & PACKAGES: While in rehearsal, you can have your mail and packages sent to Royal Caribbean Productions, 3001 NE 145th Street, North Miami, FL, 33181, USA. Any packages over the dimensions of 12"high x 17" long x 11" wide and over 30 lbs must be sent via FED EX/UPS/DHL or any other courier you wish to use. Packages over these dimensions sent through regular mail will not be delivered to the studio and returned to sender.

Once on-board the vessel, your address will be as follows:

Crew Mail Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines

Attention: Kenneth William Lear / RADIANCE OF THE SEAS

Production Cast

2935 West Corporate Lakes Blvd.

Weston, FL 33331

USA

TRAVEL: RCCL will provide you with round trip transportation from your home gateway and back, as stated in your contract (Paragraph 5 "Transportation"). Our Entertainment Department will request for your airline tickets through the crew travel department. Please note that NO changes will be accepted for departure point once your travel request has been processed. If you do not require an airline ticket, it is your responsibility to notify the Casting Department immediately. If notification is not received well in advance of your departure date, you may be held responsible for airline cancellation fees. At the completion of the contract, the company is required to provide you with a return air ticket to your home gateway airport as listed in your employee record. Travel deviations are not permitted.

LUGGAGE: Please note that RCCL books air fares that are within the company's acceptable guidelines. Remember that each airline has its own guidelines for luggage/baggage in reference to domestic and international flights. It is your responsibility to find out what the rules are in regards to your luggage/baggage. Royal Caribbean Productions will provide reimbursement up to $25.00 for travel to rehearsals and upon presentation of a receipt. Excess baggage or overweight baggage will not be reimbursed. The entertainer will be required to pay any additional baggage fees and will not be reimbursed by Royal Caribbean.

Please note that you must carry a valid passport. Non-U.S. citizens are also responsible for obtaining any Visa(s) that might be required with the Port of Call destinations.

Please be advised of a new policy in reference to air travel to include any changes or cancellations. Our contracted rates are now penalized for changes and cancellations. Once the ticket is issued, no changes will be allowed, unless it is due to an RCCL issue such as change in schedule. Penalties can range from $50.00 to $300.00 depending on the airline. You will now be responsible for this penalty. Some reasons for ticket changes that are NON RCCL related include Visa issues with Embassy and Medical not approved prior to shipboard travel. Please be aware, that in the future any changes due to the travelers mishap, you will be responsible for the penalty charges for the change or cancellation in which you will have to send a check payable to RCCL to cover the extra monies being forfeited.

ARRIVAL TO NORTH MIAMI, FL: Upon arrival at the airport in Miami or Fort Lauderdale, do not utilize an airport taxi or shuttle service. A representative from America Tours transportation company will drive you from the airport to your housing location. Further details and instructions for arrival, transportation and housing and welcome packet retrieval will be emailed closer to the travel date.

IF YOU HAVE NOT RECEIVED THIS INFORMATION ONE WEEK BEFORE YOUR REHEARSAL START DATE PLEASE EMAIL ERetana@rccl.com , GHill@rccl.com, JFeluren@rccl.com

If you have received pre-approval to drive to rehearsals, you will be reimbursed for gas and tolls only (not exceeding the company cost). Please save your travel receipts for collection.

The Royal Caribbean Productions rehearsal and housing facilities are located on the Biscayne Bay campus of Florida International University (FIU) in North Miami, Florida. At all times, while on FIU property, cast members must adhere to all applicable conduct policies, rules, regulations and guidelines set forth by Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. and FIU. This information will be provided to you prior to the commencement of your rehearsals.

Smoking Policy: Please note that FIU enforces a strict "Smoke & Tobacco-Free" policy throughout their premises. This includes all tobacco and electronic products. RCCL personnel, including cast members, are ONLY permitted to smoke in the designated, enclosed smoking area, which is located on the first floor of the Bay Vista Suites housing facility.

END OF CONTRACT GATEWAY CHANGES: If you wish to change home address at any time during the contract and requests a change to your "gateway city", such change MUST be accompanied by proof of residence. This is a formal request and must be submitted into the shipboard HR team at least ten (10) weeks BEFORE signing off the ship. Acceptable "Proof of Residence" would be one the following:

- · Driver's License with your new home address
- Lease
- Current Utility Bill

In the event this also includes a change of country of residence, governmental proof of legal residence is also required (e.g. visa)

As per policy dictated by Human Resources, if you do not follow the above protocols in the accepted time period, your request to change your gateway city WILL NOT be granted. NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE MADE PASSPORT: Your passport must be valid up to 30 days after scheduled sign off. In some cases, your passport must be valid 6 months after scheduled sign off date. If your passport falls under the 30 days or 6 month rule as stated above, please contact your casting specialist immediately. If for some reason you travel to rehearsals or the ship and your passport is not valid as staged above, you as a cast member will be responsible for all travel involved to your home country to obtain a renewed passport. RCCL will not be responsible for any fees or charges relevant to passports.

PTSAS: All Non-US Citizens are required to obtain a BI Visa prior to arriving for rehearsals. This visa will allow you to train while in the US. Cost of this visa is at the expense of the Entertainer. Non-US Citizens sailing in US waters during their contract will also need to obtain a C1/D visa. Please save your receipt for shipboard reimbursement. RCCL will cover the cost of such visa (obtained after 8/20/13), not to include any associated costs. Depending on itinerary, additional visas such as Chinese, Schengen, Canadian, etc. might be required. Please save receipts for onboard applicable reimbursement.

Please note: Canadian citizens are not required to apply for a C1-D or B-1 Visa.

MEDICAL: You are required to possess a valid medical certificate stating that you are fit for duty (FFD) while under contract with Royal Caribbean International. All employees are responsible for arriving to their rehearsals and/or ship assignment with valid medical certificates. If a medical certificate is due to expire during the assignment period, but no later than the actual expiration date. Once onboard, employees who do not renew their medical examination prior to expiration will be relieved of duty immediately and must renew at the next port of call where a medical certificate can be obtained or they will be subject to disciplinary action up to, and including, termination of employment. Only the Company Standard Approved Medical Form is to be used for the examination. The form is available onboard the ship, from your hiring partner or via e-mail. There will be no advances given on per diems to cover this expense. Medicals are typically valid for 2 years. This period may vary based on individual medical results.

BACKGROUND CHECKS: As a pre-employment requirement, Entertainer will need to submit a criminal background search or police report documentation for each of the addresses/county/countries that he/she has lived in for the past 7 years, minimally. If report is not in English, it needs to be submitted with a certified translation. Reports must have been obtained within 90 days of travel to assigned ship. You must submit a copy of this report prior to attending rehearsals - no exceptions - and bring the original with you.

VESSEL: The RADIANCE OF THE SEAS is one of many vessels within the Royal Caribbean International fleet. You may be required to board the vessel while it is undergoing routine maintenance and/or revitalization, or, in some cases, under construction in the shippyard. During these circumstances, due to the conditions and ongoing work that may be in progress, your extreme patience, flexibility and understanding will be required.

ITINERARY: Please refer to www.rccl.com for your assigned vessel's itinerary. Note that itineraries are subject to change, without notice.

SAFETY: The well-being of our guests and crew is Royal Caribbean International's top priority. The safety on board our ships is taken extremely seriously and we pride ourselves in going above and beyond compliance in all that we do. Please note that you will be trained to handle emergency situations. While you will not be asked to participate in high risk activities, it's important that you, as a cast member, are in full agreement and take this part of your job seriously in order to confidently assist in any type of situation that may arise. As you are signing on the vessel as a crewmember you will be required to participate in crew and passenger boat drills. The majority of training will be required the first 2 weeks of sign-on and may continue throughout your contract. Classes will be scheduled around your onboard rehearsals.

In any Emergency Situation on board, you may be required to perform an emergency duty that is beyond the normal responsibilities of your immediate job. The procedures and outlines in SQM should be followed in these types of situations.

REQUIRED ACTIVITIES: Once you have signed onboard the vessel, you may be required to work a maximum of 303 hours per month. To obtain these hours you will be scheduled to participate in the activities specified in "Exhibit A".

ONBOARD PAYMENT: You will begin on full salary per your contract on 8/24/2018. Salaries are paid through our 'Salary at Sea' program. A debit type card will be received during the rehearsal period or upon joining the vessel. Your pay will be deposited directly onto this card. Payments are received on or around the 15th and 30th of each month. Federal Income Tax is automatically deducted for all US citizens. Only payments from Royal Caribbean will be deposited directly onto the card. Additional personal money cannot be deposited. Once your payment has been deposited, you will receive confirmation, via email. The 'Salary at Sea' card can be used for purchases, withdrawals, money transfers and transactions.

Money wire transfer service is available through the Crew Relations Office on board. The application process can take up to 8 weeks for set up. You can fill out a wire transfer application form in the Crew Relations Office once you've signed on board the vessel. The following information is required in order to set up your account. Please bring the proper documentation with you.

- Bank Account Name
- Bank Account Number
- Bank Address
- · Bank Code / Sort Code
- Document of Bank Verification (i.e.; Check or Statement)

Once you have set up your wire transfer account, funds can be wired to home country currency. RCI has negotiated with Citibank for the most competitive rates in the market. There is a charge per wire transaction. These transfers can take from 4 up to 10 business days to appear in your account. Some banks have a fee attached to the receipt of your wire. Please check with your bank prior to setting up the transfer to see if this may apply to you. After you have received your payment on board, you will need to visit the HR Center to make the actual wire transaction.

Further details for onboard payment and wire transactions can be obtained from the Crew Office.

SHIPBOARD STATUS: Entertainer must abide by all shipboard rules and regulations. Entertainer will have limited passenger status at the discretion of the Cruise Director. Privileges may vary from ship to ship. Entertainer is allowed in designated passenger areas. Smaller lounges may be off limited, due to the seating capacity in those lounges. Entertainer is permitted to use the gym facilities, however please understand that it is company policy to allow paying guests the use of the equipment first.

GUEST PRIVILEGES: Entertainer will be entitled to Guest In-Cabin privilege at a rate of $10/day up to 90 days per year. (Eligibility begins at start of contract.) Entertainer is also eligible for the Family Privilege Plan after six months of service, to include rehearsal period. This plan allows eligible family members to sail at a discounted rate and is only guaranteed if cabin space is available. Availability of any requested sailing is at the company's discretion and will be based on shipboard capacity and applicable berthing regulations. All guests are to comply with the shipboard Guest Conduct Policy.

DRESS CODE: While in passenger areas you are to dress in your own clothing. Your dress code should be in accordance with evening's suggested attire. Note that evening dress is "Business Casual", i.e. suits for men and semi-formal attire for women. In addition, you should also bring formal attire, i.e. tuxedos for men and evening dresses for women, as there is a formal night on each cruise. If you do not own a tuxedo, you can purchase one on the ship for approximately $200.00. For more information see "Exhibit C" – Gold Anchor Grooming Standards.

SICK TRACKS: Singers will be required to record sick tracks for production shows during their first week on board. RCCL may use these tracks in case of any emergency situation during the on board dates specified in this agreement.

COMMUNICATIONS SHIPBOARD: If for any reason, your family or friends should need to contact you while on board, they can call through "Sea Mobile". Calls are billed at a rate of $7.95 min, are limited to 10 minutes and must be paid by Credit Card.

US Toll Free (888) 724-7447
